Exhibition Program Application

* indicates a required field

Yarra City Council seeks innovative and engaging artists to exhibit at Bargoonga Nganjin North Fitzroy Library, Carlton Library and Fitzroy Library as part of our 2025 exhibition program.

EOIs are only open to artists currently living/residing in Australia.

Applicants can propose one space only as part of any application. Alternatively applicants can submit multiple applications for distinct exhibitions tailored to each exhibition space.

If you are interested in exhibiting in the City of Yarra Exhibition Program, we invite you to contact Arts & Cultural Services to discuss your proposal. Then complete the following application and submit.

Applications close Friday 13 September 2024.

Submissions will be assessed on the following criteria:

- Innovative and engaging art forms and practice
- Works of high quality and artistic merit presented in a professional manner
- Clarity of theme/concept of the exhibition
- Quality of documentation provided
- Works that fit within the limitations of the exhibition space
- Carlton Library Light Box submissions: Responsive to the site, a photographic, or digital medium/other work that demonstrates suitability to the Duratrans medium, the illuminated aesthetic and display (light box format)

Video Submissions

We are also accepting applications on video to increase accessibility.

Please follow these instructions if you wish to submit your application via video:

- 1.Fill out Section 2 (Applicant Information) online as per this form.
- 2.Ensure each question in Section 3 (Exhibition Information) is answered - this can be online or in your video submission. (If answering these questions via your video submission, please type 'See video' as your answer.)
- 3.Upload your video to YouTube (this can be done as a private video) and attach your link in your Smarty Grants submission. (Video submissions should be no longer than 5 minutes.)

Queries

If you have any questions about the exhibition program please contact:
